Dramatic Script Reading Series:

Modern Text $75.00

Tuesdays and Thursdays
May 31st and June 2,7,9,14,16
Ages 12+ (10 max) 3:00-4:30pm

This workshop is an introductory opportunity to learn how a piece of dramatic literature is developed, building on the seven basic elements of any successful story. This workshop series will utilize a contemporary script to guide our group through the art of translating the printed pages of a play into dramatic mental images that are shaped by language, stage directions, intention, stakes, beats, relationships, motifs, etc. In just three short weeks we will begin with a traditional, seated table reading and build up to a staged, ensemble reading of this dramatic work, with heightened elements on display.
